WHITE HOUSE REVEALS PLAN FOR FEDERAL BANKRUPTCY/ PRIVATIZATION OF SERVICES

Bush chuckles as he shares his "feelings."

Bush admits to lies and apathy

By Michael Durham

CHRONICLE SPECIAL PROPAGANDA REPORT

Washington - President Bush set the stage for continued social complacency and Congressional inaction yesterday as he addressed a bland White House press corps. Bush announced his contempt for the public and the people of Iraq and Afghanistan. "I'm tired of all the dishonesty in Washington. See, in Texas we're all plain talkers. I'm, uh, not really interested in the problems of people who can't get me stuff. I'm also bored with lying. Unlike some of my democratic counterparts, I can admit to a lie, or bunch of lies. What does it matter? What the fuck are you going to do about it, anyway? All I've heard for six years is peep, peep, peep. Go home little chick."

Democrats accused the administration's "no lie policy" of failing to provide a full accounting of why they dismissed eight U.S. attorneys. In response, President Bush yelled, "Skull and Bones, motherfucker, fucker, fucker!"
